It is a bit of work that is worth your while as it will give a good idea about what kind of a person you are and who you're looking for.

The advantage of a site like this is the massive number of members, possibly hundreds of millions, giving you a much better chance of finding a match in your area. However this can also be seen as a disadvantage as you need to filter out many more that do not interest you. The site will do much of this for you when you search members but the rest is down to you writing a good profile so all those cat people don't bother you as a dog person.
